CONN BROTHERS

I nominate E. F. M. Tindler, for Representative of Garrard county. A Republican.

The Aid Society will meet with Mrs. W. I. Williams next Saturday at the usual hour.

Circuit court adjourned Saturday, after a three week's session during which many important cases were disposed of.

The appearance of the famous Ralph Bingham at the Court House, on Monday night, attracted a large crowd and every body got the worth of his money.

New Smoke Stack.
The smoke stack of the Lancaster Water works fell Monday, as was expected an account of its age. Conn Brothers have contracted to put up one at a cost of $150, which will be done in a few days.

No Fault No Fine.
After giving the law, last issue, governing the running of automobiles, we wrote that, in cases of an accident, a fine or damages could be recovered, meaning, manifestly and only, when the party running the auto violated the law.

Space in Demand.
We add two pages to this issue to make room for merchants. Our subscription list is growing rapidly and space is in demand. It will pay the public to see what the merchants have to say, as well as to read our news columns.

Big Sale.
T. B. Robinson sold his beautiful home, on Stanford pike, containing 147 acres, to J. F. Holtzclaw, of Preachersville, for $14,850. We welcome Mr. Holtzclaw, who wants to take advantage of our school, and we are glad to know that Mr. Robinson will remain with us.

County Court.
Not quite an average crowd in town. Business was moderately brisk.

In Judge Fords court, the will of Michael Simpson was probated, giving 150 acres of land near Stone to his wife during her life, then to their children.

Master Commissioner, J. M. Rothwell sold the land of A. D. Ford, Plaintiff vs. Elijah Ford, Defendants, containing about 60 acres, for $1,200.

Cattle sold from $4 to 4c, sows and pigs from $10 to $16, mules from $150 to $200, plug horses from $30 to $60 and a bunch of 28 ewes and 29 lambs sold for $224.84.

G. A. Swinebroad sold a team of mules for $250 and a cow for $40.

Born, March 16 to Fred Hall and wife, of Paint Lick, a ten pound boy.

The Ladies of the Methodist church will have an exchange at the post office on Saturday before Easter.

An R. F. D. man requests that the exact change be left in boxes, for stamping letters, on his route, to avoid removing gloves to make change.

We regret that the Roll of Honor of the Graded School and the list of those paying subscription to the Record since last issue must be deferred 'till next week.

Measuring Party.
At High School Chapel Friday night March 26, benefit of Base Ball team. Bring five cents for every foot of your height and a penny for each additional inch. 3-19-25.

The annual convention of the 8th district Christian Endeavor Union will be held in the Christian church at Stanford April 30, May 1st. An interesting program is being arranged and the Endeavors of the district are urged to attend.

A Good Enterprise.
An effort is being made by the citizens of Bryantsville and Camp Dick Robinson to establish a Graded School. We hope that they will succeed, as that end of the county is one of the most fertile sections of Kentucky. The land will enhance in value, and every child in the district will be given an opportunity, for an education at home, thus saving the expense of a boarding school, besides having the watch-care, over the child, the value of which is beyond estimation.

First Lecture of the Course.
Tickets are now ready for the Transylvania University Extension Lecture Course. Admission to these lectures will be by ticket only. We shall try to see that every one who is interested be presented a ticket with an urgent request to attend. But if any one should be overlooked we will gladly furnish ticket on request.

Dr. T. B. McCartney gives the first of these lectures at the Presbyterian church Saturday night, March 27, at 8 p. m., subject, "Whither Are We Drifting?"

The Right Material.
David Ross, Garrard county's efficient jailer, was in town a few hours Friday. Mr. Ross was recently defeated for the Democratic nomination for sheriff in his county by a few votes. He never sulked in his tent, nor whined about it, but announced immediately that he was for the nominee and would fight to the last ditch for the ticket. That's genuine Democracy and the way to win battles, "Raggey," as he is familiarly dubbed, is a yard wide and all wool, both in politics and in the every-day walks of life.—Richmond Climax.

May Music Festival.
Kentuckians and those who are interested in Kentucky are looking forward with more than ordinary interest to the May Music Festival, which is to be held in Louisville, May 6, 7, and 8, because for the first time in Kentucky will be heard a grand opera star who claims the Blue Grass State as his home. Riccardo Martin, who has been singing with success for several seasons at the Metropolitan Opera House, New York, is to be the leading tenor for the festival, and his friends from Hopkinsville, his home, and other towns through the Pennyrile, will be there in numbers to greet him.

A Card From Judge Bell.
Harrodsburg, Ky., Mch. 23 '09. To the voters of the 13th Judicial District:—

For some reasons I would ask the nomination of my party for Circuit Judge, and yet for stronger ones I feel I should refrain from seeking it, and retire to private life at this time.

Those who are nearest to me are insistent, and I have concluded, after careful consideration, not to offer.

I shall take my place, as formerly, in the party ranks, with the hope that I may be of some service there.

I shall never cease to labor for what I believe to be the cause of the people and the best interests of my party.

I can not express the deep appreciation I entertain for the exalted honor you have bestowed upon me, and I shall cherish with lasting devotion the happy friendships I have formed throughout the District.

W. C. Bell.

Well Known Here.

Maj. Curtis F. Burnam, a prominent Kentuckian, died at his home in Richmond last week in his eighty-ninth year. For over sixty years Maj. Burnam had been prominent in the affairs of Kentucky, and he was at one time a member of President Grant's Cabinet. He was originally a Whig and distinctively a Republican, although he was elected several times in a Democratic district without opposition. Maj. Burnam was one of the leading lawyers of Eastern Kentucky and was identified with the business interests of that section of the State for nearly three-quarters of a century. He leaves a large family of children, who have been prominent in Kentucky for years. He had many warm friends in this county.

Knights-Templar, J. M. Rothwell, J. S. Greenleaf, J. L. Gil, Capt. Wm. Herndon and H. V. Bastin attended the funeral on Sunday.

Born, March 20, to Joe Lawson and wife, of Paint Lick, a ten pound boy.

The County Superintendent requests all Trustees to call and get blanks for census report before April, first.

Sale Of Town Property.
Hughes & Swinebroad sold for J. I. Hamilton, a nice residence and six acres of land, on Crab Orchard street, to Frank Estes, for $2,200.

Ladies.
Get your Easter gowns in the leading shades—Rose, Camellia, Wisteria, Catawba, Khaki, Emerald and Maise. We have the new to suit all the new and up-to-date shades.

Miss Arnold, Danville Ave.
Mrs. Thos. Owens, of near Preachersville, while going up the steps into her porch, Saturday, fell and broke her arm just below the elbow. We regret to hear that this accident occurred and hope she will improve rapidly.

Insurance That Insures.
The late S. H. Anderson took a policy, on his life, issued by the Aetna Life Insurance company, making three payments. At the time of his death he had not paid the premiums for two years and sixty five days. The family thought the policy had lapsed, but investigation showed that it was still in force, running as extended insurance. Settlement was promptly made, by this great old company. You would do well to call on their agent, M. D. Hughes, and insure with that company.

Good For Lancaster.

Mr. L. T. McCarty in speaking of his trip to Lancaster as a juror, in the Jessamine Journal, after speaking highly of the Kengarian Hotel, and other institutions of which we are proud, closed by saying: The speeches being limited to thirty minutes each, at three o'clock the case was submitted to the jury and a verdict rendered in favor of defendant, after which Judge Bell thanked the jury for their service, a compliment of which they were all proud, and was replied to by W. E. Combs, who extended our thanks to the judge and all the officials for their courtesy and kindness bestowed while in the county seat of the grand old county of Garrard. We then took our departure for our respective homes which we reached about 8 p. m., feeling as one always feels after mingling with such noble and good people as Garrard county possesses. L. T. McC.

Seattle Exposition.

The state of Kentucky evidently realizes that the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition, to open at Seattle, June 1st, will be an excellent means of advertising, for the governor has appointed a commission to arrange for participation at the Pacific exhibition and the Blue Grass state will be well represented. This was encouraging news to thousands of former Kentuckians, now residents of Washington, Oregon and California who desire to see their native state represented in some manner at the exposition. Kentucky is following the lead of several Eastern and middle Western states in this matter and when the exposition opens in a couple of months this grand old southern state will be there with flying colors and will join with the Western states in extending a welcome to the world at large on the shores of the Pacific.

A Very Sad Death.

On last Saturday afternoon, Harvey, the bright little son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. McRoberts, was killed, near Stanford, by a wagon passing over his body. He had approached the wagon to speak to the driver, and likely attempted to climb on it falling under the wheel. His parents were from home, but arrived soon after the horrible accident. A vast throng of mourning relatives and friends attended the burial, at Buffalo Cemetery, on Monday, after brief services by Eld. J. L. Yandell.

Deceased was five years old and remarkably bright and intellectual for his age. His father is a brother of R. E. McRoberts and Mrs. J. R. Mount of this city. The family is prostrated with grief, and can only be consoled by an abiding faith that his departure from the tabernacle of clay added one more to the host of angels that sings praises to Jehovah.

March.

The new-born lambs now shiver in the cold and frosty breezes, the "sooner" call with feeble voice humps up its back and freezes. We change our heavy underwear and fill the air with sneezes, and premature robins chirp out in the apple trees. The sunshine hies the south hill sides and starts the grass to growing, the bud begins to glow and swell—the next day it is snowing! The sap is in the maple trees and from the limbs is dripping, when suddenly a freezing blast comes through the forest ripping. The lousy yearling rubs his neck against the old cow stable, the brood sow humps her back and roots as deep as she is able. But while she digs a frozen storm from Moosejaw comes a scolding, the sow hicks back to her warm nest, for it has spoiled her rooting. The daisy in the sunny dell lifts up its head to blossom, it feels the north winds icy breath, and straightway it plays possum!

About twelve o'clock Wednesday night, the handsome residence of Dr. Wm. Johnson, colored, on Campbell street, was discovered to be on fire and too late to be saved by the fire company.

The loss was total, the house being worth about $2,000. It was insured with Beazley & Haselden for $1,250.

To The Ladies.

I have just received another beautiful lot of stamping samples and Fancy embroidery patterns to be worked in one and two colors. They are all the latest styles and many handsome Easter patterns and tassels can be selected and finished. I am with my sister, Mrs. W. R. Gott, on Depot street and will appreciate a call for I have a beautiful line and invite all the ladies to see them. Miss Fannie Wilson.

Wedding.

Wednesday morning, Mr. Robert H. Whittaker and Miss Bruce Humphrey, accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. Bush, drove to the Glicker Hotel, in Danville, and there were united in holy wedlock by Rev. O. P. Bush. After an enjoyable dinner at the hotel, the happy couple took the train for Terre Haute, Ind., to visit the bride's sister.

The bride was handsomely attired in a traveling suit of gray cloth, with hat and gloves to match. Mrs. Whittaker is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Humphrey and is well known in person and disposition. Mr. Whittaker is a prosperous farmer and stock trader of Yates Center, Kansas. He is well known here, having lived here for several years. The heartiest of good wishes from their many friends go with them to their new home.

Arbor Day Proclamation.

To the people of Kentucky:
The Governor asks all the people to fix upon Friday, April 2, 1909, as Arbor day for Kentucky, and hopes that every one who can, will plant at least one tree on that day, and that the people will hold public meetings by school districts, at school houses or other convenient places, to discuss tree planting, preservation of our forests, protection of the birds, school gardens and the work to clean up and make attractive the roads, streets and vacant lots, and to cultivate in all places neatness, order and beauty, to make our homes, our farms, roads and public squares more beautiful and pleasant, to the end that, as time goes by, all our State will be beautiful and winning, not only to passers-by, but for the joy, comfort, happiness and the mental and moral betterment of ourselves and all our people. Let us plant trees for the future, plant gardens for this year and all years to come and make every public place please the eye and cheer the hearts of all who see them.

Augustus E. Wilson,
Governor of Kentucky.
Ben L. Bruner, Secretary of State.

General News.

Robbers dynamited the safe in the bank at Coldwater, Okla., and escaped with $2,000.

It is reported at Washington that President Taft will extend the order placing four class postmasters under the civil service to include the Southern States.

The Standard Oil Company is well taken care of in the Payne tariff bill. The provision concerning the importation of oil is the same as in the Dingley law.

Speaker Cannon has set his foot down on general legislation at the special session of Congress. He has announced that committees will not be named until adjournment.

The movement to convert the birthplace of Jefferson Davis in Christian county into a memorial park for Southerners was revived at Hopkinsville. Options on the Davis farm expire April 27 and it is requested that all Confederates and their sympathizers interested send their contributions for the purchase of the Davis place to S. A. Cunningham, Nashville, Tenn.

The jury in the case of D. B. Cooper and Robin J. Cooper, at Nashville, returned a verdict finding the defendants guilty of murder in the second degree and fixing their penalty at twenty years, imprisonment in the Tennessee penitentiary. Immediately after the verdict was read the defense moved to set it aside because of the verdict of disagreement on Friday, and asked the court to declare it a mistrial. Judge Hart said he would listen to arguments on this motion later. He then fixed the defendants' bond at $25,000 each, which was promptly given, and they were released from custody.

Willie Whitley was returned to his father at the Hollenden Hotel, Cleveland, Monday, after his father had paid the $10,000 ransom to a woman in a confectionery in the East end of Cleveland. The lad was put on a street car by one of his captors, who paid his fare, and walked into the hotel lobby asking for his father. The youngster said he was well treated and seemed to have no realization of the dreadful predicament in which he had been. He described as well as he could the places to which he had been taken, Mr. Whitley refused to give the police any information that would help him in finding the kidnapers.

Squeezed.

"There's nothing in physiognomy," observed the man who had been stung. "I desired to be ruler in my own household, so I married a woman with a weak chin, which she had inherited from her mother. Later I found that she also had a stubborn disposition, which she had inherited from her father."

Mark Twain On Advertising.

Mark Twain says: "When I was editing the Virginia City Enterprise, writing copy one day and mining the next, a superstitious subscriber once wrote and said he had found a spider in his paper. Was this good or bad luck? I replied to him in our 'Answers to Correspondents' column as follows:

"Oh! Subscriber—The finding of a spider in your copy of the Enterprise was neither good luck nor bad. The spider was merely looking over our pages to find out what merchant was not advertising, so that it could spin its web across his door, and lead a free and undisturbed existence forever after."
